

Arc CAD 2 Final Review

1. When looking at the; front, back, left, or right views of a house these views are called what?
2. When you are placing walls to create the second floor of a house in Revit, if you want your walls in the first floor to perfectly line up with the walls in the second floor the best way to help you see the first floor walls is by turning on what?
3. When creating your Color Fill Legend in Revit what tool needs to be used so that there are multiple items in your legend?
4. When you need to place a door but can not find one that pleases you in the properties menu you need to search for a better door using which tool?
5. When using the Revit software which menu will allow you to switch between; views, plans, sheets, etc.?
6. When rendering views for your presentation sheet what needs to be placed in order to create the render you want?
7. The easiest and most common way to make a roof that covers your whole house in Revit is with what tool?
8. At what scale is the floor plan typically drawn?
9. When you are using the Materials Browser in Revit to apply materials to your walls, if you want the sides of the wall to be different such as, exterior siding and interior paint, you will need to add a second structure to that wall in which window?
10. When creating different levels to add more floors to your house in Revit you can only do this from which type of view?