

DPI 2 Semester two study guide
Tools and work pallets

DPI 2 Semester two study guide
Tools and work pallets

Types of photography:

Close up photography called _____ was pioneered by _____.

A very inexpensive type of photography named after a French artist how developed it _____.

Non posed spontaneous types of photography is called _____.

A likeness of a person, especially the face is called a _____.

A portrait of oneself is called a _____ >

An obsolete photographic process, invented in 1839, in which a picture was made on a silver surface and developed by exposure to mercury vapor is called _____

Photo's that do not represent any know objects in the physical world are known as _____

Photo's in which areas of the scene are in darkness with occasional illuminated subjects, are called _____

New photography, whether or not for primarily pictorial media, publications, or stories, is referred to as _____

A form of photography, categorized in graphic arts and design, created specifically for marketable uses, esp. for advertising, photo-illustrations in magazines or books, or the like, is called _____

DPI 2 Semester two study guide

Tools and work pallets

A category of aesthetic subject matter in which natural scenery is represented, is known as _____

A silhouette photograph made by placing an object directly on sensitized paper and exposing it to light and was developed by the surrealist Man Ray, is called _____

A simple camera in which an aperture provided by a small hole in an opaque diaphragm is used in place of a lens, is called a _____

Photo principles n stuff:

Aperture

Shutter

Iso

Macro mode

Landscape mode

Sports mode