

Advanced Child Development 1 Exam Study Guide

Name _____

Ch. 1

Class Period _____

Licensing specialist-

Appropriate developmental curriculum-

Effective learning environment-

Do materials that teachers provide in the classroom have a strong effect on children's learning?

Ch.3

During observation time, should you avoid talking to the children?

Evaluation-

Standardized test-

Anecdotal record-

Ch.6

Are three-year-olds able to solve simple problems?

Physically, a three-year-old usually masters _____.

At what age do children learn how to express feelings appropriately?

Ch. 7

Stuttering-

Four-year-olds self-help skills usually include _____ clothing.

The five-year-old usually can _____.

What does a four-year old tend to draw?

Ch. 9

The color yellow invokes _____ response.

Dramatic play area-

The National Association for Education of Young Children recommends at least _____ square feet of free indoor space per children.

What are Classroom clues for preschoolers expected behavior?

How do you promote independence in the preschool classroom?

Ch. 10

What toys promote gross-motor skills?

What toys promote sensory exploration?

Developmental age refers to a child's _____ level.

Ch. 11

Should safety limits be simple rules in the preschool classroom?

Liability-

The privacy law is designed to protect _____.

If you do not know what substance a child swallowed, you should _____
_____.

Ch. 12

Do preschool children prefer mildly flavored foods for snack time?

The most important nutrient in the milk group is _____.

Fruits and Vegetables are major sources of vitamins _____ and _____.

Ch. 13

The primary purpose of health policies is to _____.

Children should be kept at home when their oral temperature exceeds _____.

What is the best way to get rid of a windpipe blockage in a child?

Do state licensing rules and regulations give very detailed rules for protecting children's health?

Ch. 18

Indirect learning experiences-

Learning objective-

What is the name of the part of the lesson plan which describes how to get the children's attention?

Do the developmental goals tell the "why" of an activity?

A lesson plan is an overall view of the _____.

Ch.19

Why should teachers provide art activities for preschoolers?

What type of art activity has been shown to have a negative effect on children's creativity?

At what age does the basic forms stage of art occur?

The first stage of art skill development is called _____.

Preschooler's finger painting is a _____ experience.

Ch.20

At what age do children enjoy books that add something to their knowledge?

At what age do children like books about familiar subjects and community helpers?

Stories should reflect the child's _____ level.

Stereotype-

Ch. 21

Cooperative play-

Parallel play-

Prop box-

Social-dramatic play involves physical, _____, _____, and social development.

Ch. 22

Print script-

To learn how to write, children must have _____ and _____.

List 2 fine-motor skills-

Should teachers stress writing use of one hand over the other?

Wavering lines while printing could mean _____ coordination.

Ch. 23

What is the first shape that can be copied by most children?

Studies show that children learn to identify.....Colors before shapes or shapes before color

The process of separating objects based on unique features is called _____.

Ch. 24

Science is the study of _____.

Some of the most successful science experiences will be _____.

Closed-ended questions-

What are the names of the primary colors?

Ch. 25

Social studies helps children develop_____.

Preschool Geography involves the study of _____.

Ecology focuses on water, _____, and _____.

Ch. 26

It is important that children first learn to serve food to _____.

Regarding spills, children should be encouraged to _____.

After snack time, responsibility for cleanup is taken by _____.

By setting the table, children can learn counting as well as _____.

Ch. 27

Whole song-

What is the name of the activity that consists of word patterns, rhymes, and nonsense syllables?

Moving shapes games are most appropriate for what age groups?

Music activities help children grow _____.

Should all adults in the preschool classroom be required to participate at music time?

Ch. 33

A resume should include what?

During a job interview, an applicant should _____

_____.

What legal questions may be asked during an interview?

Should job applicants always write thank-you notes to the people who interview them?

A teaching portfolio contains _____

_____.

