Plainfield South High School Announcement

Wednesday November 30, 2022

Word of the day: Capricious (adj) Unpredictable, impulsive; prone to making sudden unplanned changes.

Given his capricious approach to life, it is not surprising that Andrew never settled into one field of employment.

STUDENT AND COLLEGE NEWS:

Attention Seniors: If you have not completed your FAFSA yet, please make an appointment with our ISAC rep, Davon Maxey. Davon will be in the College Career Center (Room 300) on Wednesday, December 7th, during all study periods. To sign up for an appointment, stop in Student Services or use the QR code on the posters in your English classroom or posted around the school.

IN CASE YOU HAVEN'T HEARD:

This year's spring musical will be Roald Dahl's classically creative Matilda! If you missed our informational meeting on Monday after school, you are still able to sign up to receive information about auditions or joining the crew or pit orchestra! Stop by the choir room and scan the QR code outside Ms. Carey's office room 182 to fill out our interest form! We're excited to bring this wildly exciting story to life this spring and hope you will consider being a part of the fun!
